"Demarkate your spaces, measure them carefully,
immerse yourself"

"Mouseholes require Architecture. You cannot have mouseholes outside of an architectural context."

The Black/White/Magenta/Yellow drawings are Mouseholes squared into rectangular form, they are saturated, inhabitable, textural spaces"

"The photographs are potentially all architectural places acquired from daily life"

The blue-red paintings, which bookend the document, are configurations of Mouseholes as a picture."
