Maybe you remember a few years ago there was all this chatter...

I mutter, so sometimes what I say is not fully understood, but that shouldn't affect your hearing.

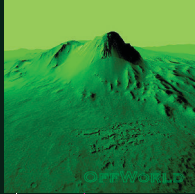

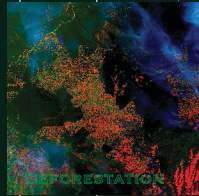

Hey, can you wait a minute? I'll climb down and take a closer look and maybe we can figure out what's going on. One second okay?

Sure, not a problem. No rush I'm hoping.

Thanks, this is much appreciated, but please I can do without the tone.

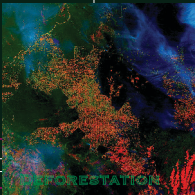

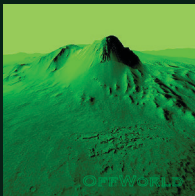

Okay, thnx, great! I mean it, thnx again

Forget it, What were you saying before we got interrupted?

They're saying it's true and I just don't have the energy to spend reinventing the wheel or any other such thing.

At the end of the day... let's take another look. How about a kiss good night?
